

The British Psychological Society Application for BPS Financial Support

Please ensure you have read the accompanying notes and have enclosed ALL the requested material with your form.
Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

Family Name:	Title:
First Name:
Department
Institute
Street Address
Postal/ZIP code
Country
Phone Number:	Fax number :
E-mail:

Member of BPS (yes/no) Student (yes/no)

Purpose for which funding is requested (check ONE category box)
Meeting	<input type="checkbox"/>
Training course	<input type="checkbox"/>
Summer Bursary Project*	<input type="checkbox"/> *N.B. Only project supervisors to apply
Special Project	<input type="checkbox"/>

To complete your application please refer to the checklist for your category on page 2 of this application and enclose ALL the required material.

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY
Date Received	Date Reviewed
Reviewers	Amount Awarded and date:

Material required for MEETING or TRAINING COURSE - please tick to confirm enclosed material is supplied
	Title, date and location of meeting / course
	Breakdown of anticipated costs: including, registration / training fees, accommodation & meals, travel. You should also indicate other resources available as full costs are rarely met.
	A brief CV and summary of your reasons for wishing to attend the meeting or course and the benefits that you expect to obtain as a result. Please indicate the title and type of presentation (oral or poster) that you will contribute.
	Statement of support from your supervisor or Head of Department.
DEADLINES: 1st March, 1st June, 30th September and 1st December

Material required for SUMMER BURSARY PROJECT -please tick to confirm enclosed material is supplied
	Title of bursary project and abstract
	A 1-page project proposal including references which must outline the scientific case for support and the benefits the project will bring to a bursary student.
DEADLINE: 1st March

Material required for SPECIAL PROJECT
From time to time BPS Council considers request to support special projects. These may include a contribution to support a meeting or symposium, support for collections, public understanding of science and special publications. -please tick to confirm enclosed material is supplied
	Title and abstract of the project or meeting proposal
	A full project description (up to 2 A4 pages) which should include justification for seeking BPS support e.g. contribution to psychology, policy making, public awareness, support for psychology in less well funded countries etc. and the anticipated benefits arising.
	Breakdown of costs. Please indicate whether or not other sources of funding have been sought and the anticipated outcome. A timescale to demonstrate how project objectives will be met over the duration of the project.
DEADLINE: 1st June and 1st December

Signed by Applicant	Date

This form and accompanying material should be returned to: Dr Barry Leadbeater, Chair BPS Awards, School of Biosciences, The University of Birmingham, Edgbaston, Birmingham, B15 2TT, United Kingdom. b.s.c.leadbeater@bham.ac.uk.

Please note that all successful applicants are required to provide a short report of the meeting or work supported to the BPS Council. This account will be published in The Psychologist.